Enter Academy of Our Lady of Peace 2010-11 Alumnae Book Scholarship Contest and win a BOOK Scholarship valued at approximately $200. A Scholarship will be offered to each grade level ...one for the best entry from each class year. To apply, respond to the following prompt: FRIENDSHIP is an enduring theme in literature. Choose a literary work (fiction or non-fiction) and describe what it has taught you about the value of friendship. How have you become a better friend by what you have read? Your entry should be 300-500 words, TYPED on one single-sided page only. Please do not put your name on the paper. Pick up an application in the Front Office and follow instructions posted on the application.

ATTENTION BOOK CLUB! The Book Club is open to any students who want to read the selected book and meet for discussion. At this time we are reading “Reading Lolita in Tehran” by Azar Nafisi for those persons whose last names begin with A-L, and “Jasmine and Stars; reading more than Lolita in Tehran” by Fatemeh Keshavarz, to those whose last names begin with M-Z. See you in Room 203 on March 17th.
